

SJVWP Record for July 21, 2011

Ear hustler's quotes for the day

We started our day with a record by Mindy.

Then dove into curriculum planning with a few words from Professor Godfrey who said "We saw the power of collaboration, debrief sessions were really GREAT! EXCELLENT WORK!" ...only we forgot to KISS our brain!

Then someone said "I never sweat it when I'm in my neighborhood."

Someone else said "Sometimes in my neighborhood things get jacked." Followed by "They have a lot of junk." Which was followed by "I need to move."

AND THEN... When it was time to share our writing – three brave souls stepped forward- Kim M. , Meta and Julie... like everyone else in the room was thinking "NOT I!"

It was lunch time and Kopi came by to film some fabulous wild, wacky, women, writers from Fresno, Ca. Someone said "Tweetadilicious" during lunch.

Then it was time for our reading group presentations and our professor said: "I'm excited because I have no idea what you guys are doing!"

Someone replied "Neither do we!"

Who could forget Joe the Non Net Book guy or the shirtless guy who was just plain nuts!

Did someone say "Wiki, wiki, wiki, wiki!" or was that "Classity class" and "yessity yes!"
